

Salmiah Hamid

As Director (Aftercare) with the Yellow Ribbon Singapore, Salmiah oversees the engagement of community partners to support the reintegration of ex-offenders back into the community and moving towards being a more inclusive society, a nation beyond second chances. Prior to this, Salmiah was the General Manager for a cluster of Social Service Offices (SSOs) under the Ministry of Social and Family Development. She oversaw the daily operations of the SSOs and the administration of assistance schemes to low-income families. She has also served as the Senior Deputy Director at the Registry of Muslim Marriages and the Syariah Court. In 2015, Salmiah received the Public Administration Medal (Bronze).
